

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

October 1, 2012 – December 31, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on the phase-out of incandescent light bulbs and a pledge by Hershey to use only certified cocoa for all of its chocolate products by the start of the next decade.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:21), According to a PECO spokesperson utility prices in Pennsylvania are set to increase today in an effort to keep up with the wholesale market; 10/2—(:14), Online shoppers might be paying more than they should all because of a change in tax policy; 10/4—(:22), Hershey is pledging to use only certified cocoa for all of its chocolate products by 2020; 10/12—(:16), The price of a first class stamp is increasing by a penny to 46 cents; 10/17—(:18), The Federal Trade Commission estimates that as many as 9 million Americans have their identities stolen each year; 10/18—(:20), After 80 years on stands, Newsweek is going to stop selling print editions at the end of the year; (:18), A new report shows, in Pennsylvania, one in four families makes less than what's needed to afford basic necessities; 10/24—(:24), Barnes and Noble claim devices used to swipe credit and debit cards have been hacked – affected stores include Pennsylvania and New Jersey; 10/26—(:15), With the need greater than ever, the Delaware valley's largest hunger relief organization is critically low on food; 11/5—(:24), Hurricane Sandy may end up being the second-costliest storm in U.S. history, but the price of rebuilding could actually boost the economy; 11/8—(:18), Early Black Friday for Walmart starting at 8pm on Thanksgiving; 11/8—(:16), Wynn reportedly wants to build a new casino and luxury hotel on the Delaware River in Fishtown; 11/11—(:24), Hostess Brand Snacks has warned employees that a lengthy strike would lead to layoffs; 11/16—(:24), Hostess is going out of business, and as customers worry about losing their long-time favorite snacks, thousands of worker face losing their jobs right before the holidays; 11/19—(:21), Temple University is working to get people back on their feet by holding a job fair today; 11/25—(:10), The Powerball jackpot is now 425 million dollars for Wednesday's game which is a new record; 11/29—(:14), Two tickets matched all the numbers in last night's record setting 588 million dollar Powerball jackpot; 11/29—(:17), Old fashioned incandescent light bulbs are being phased out; 11/30—(:24), Atlantic City's new casino Revel is on the brink of failing; 12/5—(:14), Tipping is something that most people do year-round, but during the holidays, it can get more confusing; 12/6—(:22), A Powerball ticket worth 50 million dollars was sold in Bucks County for last night's drawing; 12/10—(:23), Senator Bob Casey is pushing the Gift Card Consumer Protection Act; 12/11—(:18), Hurricane Sandy is being blamed for the biggest drop in Atlantic City casino revenues; 12/17—(:23), Southwest Airlines will soon charge customers who fail to show up for their flight; 12/26—(:23), Privacy issues with Instagram are leading to the first lawsuit against the photo sharing service.

CRIME - Topics in this category include reports on the search for a groper in Bucks County who police allege is inappropriately touching young girls in crowded stores and on a heroin bust in Northeast Philadelphia that nets more than one million dollars worth of drugs.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:26), Authorities in Delaware County are investigating two suspicious fires two blocks apart in Folcroft; 10/2—(:07), Philadelphia Police are looking for four people involved in an assault and robbery in a Northeast Philadelphia supermarket; 10/3—(:22), Police are searching for a pair of armed suspects who targeted shoppers in the parking lot of the Deptford mall; 10/6—(:13), A Temple University football player was arrested on kidnapping charges; 10/9—(:06), A heroin bust in Northeast Philadelphia nets more than one million dollars worth of drugs; 10/18—(:13), Boy Scouts of America is accused of covering up more than 20 years of sex abuse cases; 10/21—(:11), Police in Gloucester County are asking for the public's help in finding a missing 12-year-old girl named Autumn Pasquale who was last seen riding her bicycle; 10/22—(:34), The Pennsylvania State police have issued an amber alert for a missing child in Upper Merion township; 10/24—(:18), A Chaddsford man is sentenced for causing a security scare at Philadelphia International Airport; 11/5—(:26), Philadelphia Police are searching for a suspect who assaulted a woman after she got off a SEPTA bus; 11/8—(:19), A retired former Philadelphia Police officer is arrested and being accused of trying to lure a young girl into his vehicle; 11/9—(:22), A Delaware County mother is charged with murder after toxicology reports found her baby died from a heroin overdose; 11/14—(:09), Philadelphia Police raid a property in Old City believed to be a front for a prostitution ring; 11/16—(:12), Philadelphia Police are investigating a road rage incident where two cars opened fire on one other; 11/27—(:23), Police arrest a suspected copper thief targeting PECO substations; 12/3—(:14), Authorities warn holiday shoppers to be on alert for a pregnant woman going around area malls stealing purses and wallets; 12/4—(:22), Authorities bust up an elaborate plan to break two murder suspects out of a Chester County prison; 12/7—(:17), A Delaware man is facing child pornography charges; 12/10—(:26), Grief counselors were on hand at two local high schools today following a crash that killed a Bucks County teenager and sent four others to the hospital; 12/11—(:07), Con artists are targeting people in northeast Philadelphia posing as members of the city water department and stealing valuables; 12/12—(:27), Officials in Chester County say a drug investigation led them to a dog fighting ring run by a couple with five children; 12/13—(:19), Police in Bucks County are searching for a groper who they say are groping young girls in crowded stores; 12/14—(:31), Philadelphia police identify two teenage brothers wanted in connection with a shooting on a SEPTA Market-Frankford El train; 12/18—(:32) A student in Atlantic County is under arrest tonight after authorities find explosive making material inside his house; 12/20—(:10), Philadelphia Police Commissioner Charles Ramsey has been appointed to President Obama's new task force on preventing gun violence; 12/21—(:09), A 14-year-old Bucks County boy is under arrest tonight because police say he threatened to kill students and staff at his high school; 12/28—(:28), Three officers are shot inside their own police station in Gloucester Township after a scuffle with a suspect in custody; 12/31—(:17), For the second year in a row, Philadelphia reportedly has one of the highest homicide rates in the country.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on the kick-off to an annual holiday tradition with Peter Nero and the Philly Pops and on local chefs creating gingerbread house models of historic Fairmount Park sites.

Eyewitness News: 10/3—(:22), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter's wife Lisa modeled the latest styles in a fashion show to benefit the Philadelphia Children's Alliance; 10/4—(:14), The Philadelphia Zoo celebrated the birthday of Batu—a Sumatran orangutan; 10/18—(:25), Temple University hosts the Annual Lew Klein Alumni in the Media Awards – this year Anderson Cooper was acknowledged; 10/18—(:21), Tonight, the Philadelphia Orchestra's new 37-year-old music director will raise his baton at the Kimmel Center; 10/22—(:07), Former talk show host Rosie O'Donnell is in Philly this weekend; 10/23—(:13), The bar code has roots here in Philadelphia; 11/7—(:21), In honor of the 100th anniversary, a new Titanic exhibit at the Franklin Institute has been opened; 11/8—(:28), Anchor Pat Ciarrocchi received the 2012 Blue Sapphire Award from Philadelphia Rowhome magazine; 11/9—(:22), Phillies ball girl tryouts got underway today at Citizens Bank Park in South Philadelphia; 11/12—(:19), The Jimmy Rollins Foundation and Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania organized a fund raising and awareness event tonight at the National Constitution Center; 11/13—(:20), A groundbreaking for Jon Bon Jovi's Soul Homes was held in Philadelphia's Francisville neighborhood; 11/14—(:21), Local chefs create gingerbread house models of historic Fairmount Park sites; 11/15—(:19), The National Circus of People's Republic of China held a show at the Temple Performing Arts Center; 11/16—(:25), Sports director Beasley Reece was inducted into the Broadcast Pioneers Hall of Fame; 11/19—(:13), Runners hit the pavement this weekend for the annual Philadelphia Marathon; (:15), The 35th annual Mayday Parade happens in Philly today; 11/19—(:27), A standing ovation for actor James Earl Jones at the Kimmel Center tonight as he is presented with the 2012 Marian Anderson award; 11/20—(:24), A document featuring the signature of Abraham Lincoln is for sale here in Philadelphia; 11/28—(:13), The sights of the season are on display tonight in Rittenhouse Square for the holiday tree lighting; 12/6—(:17), The National Constitution Center has named former Florida Governor Jeb Bush Chairman of the Board of Trustees; 12/7—(:22), Peter Nero and the Philly Pops kicked off its annual holiday series tonight; 12/13—(:20), Santa gladly accepted an invitation to the Christmas party inside the intensive care nursery at Our Lady of Lourdes Medical Center in Camden; 12/14—(:15), A local artist is using his creativity to help the victims of Sandy by making a large mural using his images of the Jersey shore; 12/19—(:25), Donald Trump wins a legal fight against a former Miss Pennsylvania USA; 12/20—(:05), A thousand families will enjoy a turkey this Christmas thanks to Drexel University alumni; 12/21—(:24), Yards Brewery on Delaware Avenue hosted the 2nd annual Cancer is Ugly sweater party to benefit local hospitals; 12/22—(:18), Today was the Philadelphia Fire Fourth Battalion's Christmas event; 12/27—(:11), As the end of year approaches the Mummers are hard at work getting ready to strut up Broad Street for the New Year's day parade.

ELDERLY - Topics in this category include reports on a stun gun attack targeting three elderly women from the Mennonite community in Lancaster County and on older passengers being targeted and robbed at Philadelphia International Airport.

Eyewitness News: 10/18—(:07), Elderly passengers are being targeted and robbed at Philadelphia International Airport; 11/20—(:16), Authorities are warning the elderly about burglars posing as utility workers throughout various sections of Philadelphia; 11/28—(:18), The Philadelphia Fire Department is trying to raise awareness about fire safety after an elderly couple were killed in a house fire; 11/29—(:18), The search is on for a man who allegedly killed two elderly men; 12/17—(:16), Police in Lancaster County say religion was at the center of a bizarre stun gun attack targeting three elderly women from the Mennonite community; 12/18—(:23), An elderly woman mistakenly hit the gas and crashed into a church in North Philadelphia; 12/29—(:19), A fire breaks out in the basement of a retirement community forcing elderly residents to evacuate.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on newly installed wind turbines at Lincoln Financial Field turning the Philadelphia Eagles' home field into the NFL's greenest stadium and on Hurricane Sandy taking aim at our region as people scramble to make preparations for the storm prior to landfall.

Eyewitness News: 10/15—(:21), Crews are busy still trying to repair several water main breaks in Philadelphia; 10/16—(:17), Three organizations are being honored for helping the Chestnut Hill area earn a spot on the Top Ten Urban Neighborhoods in America; 10/18—(:20), A gas line break causes a scare in Delaware County; 10/20—(:09), Lancaster County is cleaning up after a Tornado hit the area killing 15 people and leaving serious damages; 10/25—(:12), Newly installed wind turbines at Lincoln Financial Field turn the Philadelphia Eagles' home field into the NFL's greenest stadium; 10/26—(:33), Hurricane Sandy takes aim at our region as people scramble to make preparations for the storm prior to landfall; 10/27—(:16), Mandatory evacuations have been ordered for many coastal towns in New Jersey and Delaware; 11/2—(:07), Days after super storm Sandy the full extent of the destruction is now being revealed; 11/5—(:14), A minor earthquake hit the northern part of New Jersey overnight; 11/10—(:10), Utility crews in New Jersey are still working to restore power to those in the dark from Sandy; 11/22—(:19), The remains of a roller coaster knocked off a New Jersey pier by Sandy may end up staying in the ocean as a tourist attraction in Seaside Heights; 11/23—(:18), Some people in Camden County were shaken awake by a small earthquake; 11/28—(:24), Toms River is starting scheduled debris collections and converting parks and parking lots into temporary dumping grounds; 11/30—(:32), A freight train derailment resulted in a chemical spill this morning in Paulsboro, New Jersey, sending dozens of people to area hospitals; 12/3—(:31), Evacuation orders have been extended following Friday's train derailment off a Paulsboro, New Jersey bridge that leaked vinyl chloride; 12/14—(:29), Forbes magazine unveils a list of dirtiest cities in America and Philadelphia ranks near the top spot.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on the 2012 presidential election and the City of Philadelphia launching a new website to allow individuals to appeal parking tickets.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:19), Former president Bill Clinton is reportedly set to make an appearance today in Philadelphia, campaigning for Democratic attorney general candidate Kathleen Kane; 10/2—(:28), A new poll just released this morning shows President Obama with a lead over Governor Romney; (:09), A judge has put Pennsylvania's controversial new voter ID law on hold; 10/8—(:14), Tomorrow is the last day to register to vote in Pennsylvania; 10/10—(:20), The Romney campaign is hoping Governor Christie's bold style will help attract undecided voters in a state that is close to must win for republicans; 10/11—(:16), Vice President Joe Biden and Republican Congressman Paul Ryan are getting ready for their one and only debate; 10/15—(:06), A plan that would let New Jersey voters increase the state's minimum wage, has cleared a senate committee; (:16), This evening, people are preparing to bid a final farewell to former Senator Arlen Specter; 10/19—(:24), The two candidates are preparing for Monday's final debate; 10/25—(:18), Pennsylvania's 8th congressional district is considered one of the state's more competitive races; (:22), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett signed the Brad Fox law today; 10/26—(:17), Voting machines in Philadelphia are undergoing public inspection; 11/5—(:18), Former President Bill Clinton is scheduled to appear at a campaign event at the University of Pennsylvania; (:25), The presidential candidates are making their final plea for Pennsylvania; 11/6—(:31), Voters begin to line up at the polls, even those affected by Hurricane Sandy make their way there; 11/7—(:20), Newly elected President Obama tells people that the best is yet to come after he is re-elected; 11/9—(:12), President Obama prepares to deliver an address this afternoon about the fiscal cliff; 11/12—(:28), On Veterans Day citizens across the country are saluting the brave members of the military that served our country during times of war; 11/13—(:04), Hurricane Sandy could end up costing tax payers in New Jersey; 11/15—(:11), Union members protest outside the home of Mayor Michael Nutter; 11/15—(:22), President Obama went in a helicopter today to see all of the damages of Hurricane Sandy; 11/21—(:14), A new ruling in the fiery contract battle between Philadelphia Firefighters and the city; 11/26—(:07), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie is running for a second term; 11/29—(:18), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter is leading a trade mission to China tonight; 11/30—(:21), The city of Camden is moving forward with plans to dismantle its police department and join a new county-wide force; 12/3—(:26), The New Jersey legislature voted today to send Governor Chris Christie a bill increasing the minimum wage; 12/4—(:24), President Obama is getting input from Delaware's Governor on how to prevent tax hikes and spending cuts at the end of the year; 12/6—(:21), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie visited the White House today to ask for more help for his state to cover Sandy relief efforts; 12/10—(:19), There's a battle brewing in South Jersey, where shore town officials are fighting against legislation to ban beach tags; 12/11—(:26), Delaware Governor Jack Markell is currently touring Japan, but he checked in with local students via Google this morning; 12/13—(:20), The City of Philadelphia has launched a new website to allow you to appeal parking tickets; 12/17—(:04), New Jersey lawmakers are considering a bill that would charge you for grocery bags; 12/19—(:19), Trenton, New Jersey Mayor Tony Mack pleads not guilty in his first court appearance on corruption charges; 12/22—(:09), Four major professional sports leagues and the NCAA are poised to move forward with their legal battle over New Jersey's plan to allow sports gambling; 12/31—(:16), At midnight tonight, same sex marriage becomes legal in Maryland – that's the closest state yet to the Philadelphia area to legalize it.

Newsmakers: 10/7—(10:45), After months of rhetoric on the campaign trail, President Obama and Mitt Romney finally went face-to-face in their first presidential debate. They faced off at the University of Denver in a discussion focused on domestic issues. A CBS News Poll showed most people thought the GOP Nominee won the debate. Where did Romney succeed and where the President fail? And what about the next debate? Dr. William Rosenberg, political science professor at Drexel University, offers his perspective; 10/13—(10:30), He's been Delaware's State Treasurer, Congressman, Governor, and a U.S. Senator all in the span of over 35 years. Now, Sen. Tom Carper, (D) Delaware is seeking another six years in the senate. He's currently on the Senate Homeland Security, Finance, and Environmental Works Committees; 10/14—(11:40), Pennsylvania's 8th Congressional District is a flashpoint in Campaign 2012. National observers say this congressional race is one of the country's most competitive. Rep. Mike Fitzpatrick, (R) Pennsylvania seeking his third term. The former Bucks County Commissioner was elected to his first term in 2004, and then lost to Patrick Murphy two years later. He defeated Murphy to retake the seat two years ago; 10/21—(12:00), Delaware's U.S. Senate race is a 3-way battle in Campaign 2012. Alex Pires, (Ind.) Delaware is an attorney and business owner; 10/28—(11:00), Sen. Bob Menendez, (D) New Jersey, is seeking re-election. He's held the job since 2006, filling the unexpired term of Gov. Jon Corzine, then was elected in his own right later that year. He previously served as a member of Congress from 1993 to 2006; 11/4—(9:50), One week after Hurricane Sandy tore through the region the recovery process is underway. Volunteers for the American Red Cross are working in communities where people are struggling to rebuild their homes and their lives. Leading the effort at the American Red Cross is Judge Renee Cardwell Hughes. She became the CEO of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Chapter in May 2011. Previously, Judge Hughes had served in the Court of Common Pleas of the 1st Judicial District of Pennsylvania since 1996; 11/11—(12:06), Political Analysts David Barrett, a political science professor at Villanova University, and Sam Rohrer, former Pennsylvania State Representative, analyze the outcome of Election Day 2012; 11/18 – (12:31), Sen. Bob Casey, (D) Pennsylvania, says it's time to get America's fiscal house in order, after he's re-elected to another six-year term. What compromises is he willing to make? Plus, he comments on the conflict between Israel and Hamas and relations between the U.S. and Israel; 11/25—(10:30), Pennsylvania's Gaming Control Board is mulling over applications for Philadelphia's second casino license. One proposal, from Penn National Gaming, calls for a $480 Million casino in South Philadelphia. Penn National would retain one-third ownership with the other two-thirds owned by the city. Rep. Bob Brady, (D) Pennsylvania, says it's a good bet for Philadelphia. He was just elected to his ninth term. The 1st District Democrat serves on the House Armed Services Committee and is the ranking member of the House Administration Committee; 12/2—(11:45), The United Nations votes to recognize a Palestinian state. What did the Palestinians really gain? What does it mean for Israel's future? Yaron Sideman, Consul General of Israel for the Mid-Atlantic region, provides perspective.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on research that indicates pesticides and tap water might be the cause of many food allergies and a deadly, nationwide outbreak of fungal meningitis which has now spread to New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:15), Doctors say a new study should be reassuring to parents who have been concerned about the safety of the HPV vaccine; 10/3—(:21), A new study found that short-term use of hormones to relieve symptoms like hot flashes did not seem to raise heart risks; 10/5—(:11), An outbreak of fungal meningitis in six states has local health official on alert; 10/7—(:25), The Montgomery County Health Department confirms two cases of whooping cough in school aged kids; 10/8—(:20), A new study shows eating tomatoes and tomato-based foods could lower your risk of stroke; 10/9—(:12), A deadly, nationwide outbreak of fungal meningitis has now spread to New Jersey; 10/10—(:24), A second case of fungal meningitis is now confirmed in Cumberland County; 10/13—(:07), Health officials confirm four more cases of fungal meningitis in New Jersey; 10/15—(:22), Pennsylvania is reporting its first case of fungal meningitis; 10/16—(:17), Researchers are saying that it could be your brain that is causing you to be overweight; 10/17—(:21), Taking a multivitamin everyday could help middle aged and older men reduce their risk of cancer; 10/18—(:27), A new study shows that not getting enough sleep can put you at risk of getting Alzheimer's or severe memory loss; 10/19—(:23), Recent reports indicate blood tests may spot breast cancer years in advance up to two decades before any symptoms show; 10/20—(:07), A new study shows that young boys are reaching puberty earlier than ever before; 10/21—(:19), October is Breast Cancer Awareness month and landmarks across our area are lit up in pink to remind women and men to schedule a mammogram; 10/23—(:20), New Jersey officials say that five people have died this year from the West Nile Virus; 10/24—(:09), Aspirin may be highly effective in treating colon cancer according to a new study; 11/5—(:13), Americans need to cut down on sodium per new recommendations from the American Heart Association, people are reportedly consuming double what they need to; 11/6—(:10), New research shows that people with diabetes and several clogged heart arteries fare better with bypass surgery instead of having stents placed to prop open their bold vessels; 11/12—(:20), A new study suggests being sick while pregnant can increase the risk of having a child with autism; 11/15—(:13), A new CDC report finds black women with breast cancer have a 40% higher chance of dying than white women with the disease; (:31), The Food and Drug Administration is investigating thirteen deaths that could be linked to five hour energy drinks; 11/16—(:13), An acid found in fish may be connected to postpartum depression; 11/23—(:15), A new study shows a dramatic increase in the number of Americans with cataracts; 11/26—(:26), The American Academy of Pediatrics is taking new steps to prevent teen pregnancy; 11/29—(:12), New evidence suggests abusing prescription medications is becoming a growing problem for millions of people; 11/30—(:20), The birth rate plunged to its lowest level in America since 1920; 12/1—(:17), A new urgent care center opened up in south Philadelphia today; 12/3—(:26), Researchers say that pesticides and tap water might be the cause of many food allergies; (:24), Researchers believe that a common diabetes drug may be helpful in fighting ovarian cancer; 12/6—(:18), A historic moment for New Jersey as legal medical marijuana goes on sale; 12/11—(:03), This year's flu season is off to an early start; 12/13—(:19), New evidence suggests drinking coffee may lower your risk of oral cancer; 12/26—(:11), Hundreds of prescription drugs are in short supply forcing doctors to use other treatments; 12/28—(:21), A protein that triggers milk production in women might also make breast cancers more aggressive.

MINORITY/ETHNIC - Topics in this category include reports on the Hispanic Choice Awards and a dedication ceremony honoring an icon in the LGBT community to kick-off Gay History Month.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:07), Gay History Month kicks off in Philadelphia with a dedication ceremony honoring an icon in the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender community; 10/11—(:23), A Philadelphia man is suing the Hooters restaurant chain for racial discrimination; 10/16—(:21), A big celebration at the 8th Annual Hispanic Choice Awards at the Kimmel Center; 12/26—(:18), Today is the first day of Kwanzaa – a seven day festival celebrating African-American culture.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on a lab explosion at Rowan University and a toddler falling between a train and the platform at 30th Street station.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:05), General Motors is recalling 40,000 cars and SUVs, because of a fuel pump problem; (:13), A Philadelphia police officer caught on tape punches a woman in the face following the Puerto Rican day parade; 10/4—(:14), A toddler falls between a train and the platform at 30th Street station; 10/5—(:26), American Airlines is cancelling dozens of flights as it scrambles to fix seats that could pop loose during flight; 10/8—(:20), Honda is recalling more than 250,000 CRV's because an electrical switch in the door could melt and cause a fire—even when the vehicle is off; 10/11—(:24), Kellogg's is recalling almost 3 million boxes of cereal; 10/15—(:47), Philadelphia Police internal affair is investigating the use of force by one of its officers during a recent arrest – video shows the officer confronting a man who police say was intoxicated during Oktoberfest on South Street; 10/18—(:16), A man is rescued after tumbling into a manhole in South Philadelphia; 10/19—(:24), A train crashes into a car in Gloucester County, leaving one person and a baby seriously hurt; (:17), A shocking new report shows that nearly half of all New Jersey school buses failed to make the grade in their initial inspections last year; (:30), Banana Boat is voluntarily pulling 23 varieties of its ultra-mist aerosol sun screen line due to it being a fire hazard; 10/20—(:21), Dole is recalling its American Blend salad due to possible listeria contamination; (:24), Smuckers is warning schools about their uncrustables which contain peanut butter than may be contaminated with salmonella; 10/22—(:22), Nissan is recalling 14 thousand of its cars because some of their bolts could become loose and fall out; 10/23—(:20), Wegman's is recalling packages of gluten free double chocolate brownie mix after two people suffered allergic reactions to undeclared milk – including stores in New Jersey and Pennsylvania; 10/24—(:15), Police in South Jersey are searching for an escaped prisoner after he walked off during roll call at a minimum security prison; 11/8—(:19), Three people had to be rescued when the side of their West Philadelphia home crumbled to the ground; 11/9—(:08), Nestle is recalling some of its Nesquik chocolate milk powder because it could pose a salmonella risk; 11/12—(:10), A dozen students are hurt in a bus crash in Atlantic County, New Jersey; 11/21—(:12), Police across the region are on the lookout for drunk drivers as the holiday season approaches; 11/22—(:27), Toyota is recalling about 150-thousand Tacoma trucks for a rust problem; 11/25—(:19), Emergency crews are trying to repair an overnight water main break in the Manayunk section of the city; 11/26—(:15), Investigators say a woman smoking while using an oxygen tank sparked a house fire in Camden County; 11/27—(:25), Investigators believe faulty wiring and space heaters may have started a deadly house fire in Kensington; 12/5—(:16), A student is injured in a lab explosion at Rowan University; 12/6—(:26), Details emerge in recent instances in Philadelphia in which men impersonated police officers to commit crimes; 12/11—(:21), The driver of a school bus that crashed into a home in North Philadelphia is being taken off the road during an investigation; 12/17—(:25), Firefighters are trying to figure out what caused a massive warehouse fire in Bridesburg; 12/18—(:05), More than a thousand guns are now off the streets of Camden thanks to a gun buyback program; 12/22—(:20), A scare on board a Continental express flight bound for Cleveland – the plane had to return to Philadelphia International Airport after reports of a smell of smoke on board; 12/27—(:23), Major retailers have agreed to recall more than 150,000 nap nanny foam baby recliners due to possible entrapment, suffocation and fall hazards.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on Jewish people in our area and around the world celebrating the start of Hanukkah and a Christmas tradition at the Vatican as crowds gathered in St. Peter's Square for a ceremony to light the tree.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:25), The Philadelphia Archdiocese is officially closing Ascension of Our Lord Parish today; 12/8—(:11), Jewish people in our area and around the world are celebrating the start of Hanukkah tonight; 12/12—(:19), Pope Benedict XVI is standing at a new pulpit – today he embraced the power of Twitter; 12/14—(:14), A Christmas tradition at the Vatican as crowds gathered in St. Peter's Square today for a ceremony to light the tree; 12/25—(:07), Christians in our area and around the world celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ today.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on young students at one South Philadelphia school facing a busing crisis and a week of respect underway in New Jersey schools.

Eyewitness News: 10/1—(:11), A week of respect is underway in New Jersey schools; 10/10—(:11), A Cumberland County kindergartener arrived home from school and told her mother that she was forced to eat from the trash; 10/9—(:07), A Philadelphia teen returns to class for the first time since she says she was ridiculed by a teacher for wearing a Mitt Romney T-shirt; 10/12—(:19), Young students at one South Philadelphia school are facing a busing crisis; 10/22—(:09), Halloween has been banned at Chester County Elementary school this year; 11/7—(:36), Conjoined twins are recovering after a separation surgery at the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia; 12/13—(:12), A big announcement from the new superintendent of Philadelphia Public Schools sparks outrage; 12/17—(:22), With the elementary school massacre in Newtown, Connecticut fresh in their minds, Mayor Nutter and city officials attend a symposium on youth violence; 12/17—(:22), A New Jersey girl's push for a more manly unisex easy bake oven is coming true; 12/20—(:07), Protesters march to Philadelphia School District headquarters—angry over a plan to close select Philadelphia Public Schools; 12/21—(:15), An eleven year old Bucks County girl wants nothing more than to play football; 12/26—(:08), Students at various Philadelphia high schools will have access to free condoms in the new year.